Governor Jan Brewer Announces Appointment of Superior Court Judge in Yavapai County

PHOENIX – Arizona Governor Jan Brewer today announced the appointment of Jennifer Blake Campbell to the Yavapai County Superior Court.

Ms. Campbell is an attorney with the Campbell Law Firm in Prescott, Arizona, where she specializes in criminal and domestic relations matters. She graduated from the University of Texas School of Law in 2002, and received her undergraduate degree from Colorado State University in 1999. She is a member of the State Bar of Texas and the State Bar of Arizona.

Ms. Campbell has served as both a criminal defense counsel and as a prosecutor for the Yavapai County Attorney's Office. She currently serves as immediate past president of the Yavapai County Bar Association, and is former president of the Northern Arizona Women's Lawyers Association. She also is active in many community organizations, and hosts a weekly radio show on KYCA Radio covering current events.

"Jennifer has broad experience in civil and criminal matters throughout Yavapai County," stated Governor Brewer. "Her legal expertise and commitment to serving the citizens of Yavapai County make her well-qualified to be a superior court judge."

This appointment was made to fill the vacancy created by Governor's Brewer's appointment of the Honorable Robert Brutinel to the Arizona Supreme Court.

"It is an honor to appoint Jennifer Campbell to the Yavapai County Superior Court," said Governor Brewer. "She is an outstanding attorney who will serve the citizens of Yavapai County well as their newest judge."
